

4th Edition

Medical Care of the Dying*

“I recommend this book highly...”

“lucid, clearly expressed, excellent guide”

“lives up to the reputation”

“best parts of the book... identify a palliative care problem and treat it”

“I hope it finds a home on general acute care wards, offices of primary physicians and hospital out-patient departments”

Dr. Neil MacDonald, Department of Oncology
McGill University, Montreal
In the Journal Of Palliative Care: 2006 Volume 22:3

Editors

G. Michael Downing, MD
Wendy Wainwright, MEd

Chapter Contents

- Introduction
- Team, Communication and Self-Care
- Ethical Considerations
- Pain – Etiology
- Pain – Assessment
- Pain – Principles and Titration
- Pain – Analgesics
- Pain – Adjuvants
- Gastrointestinal
- Respiratory
- Cardiovascular
- Genitourinary
- Orthopedic
- Neurological
- Dermatology
- Pediatric Palliative Care
- Psychosocial Considerations
- Cultural and Spiritual Considerations
- Death and Dying
- Bereavement

What's Different?

- Extensively Updated and Expanded
- Hard Cover
- 26 Contributing Authors
- 687 Pages
- 2,700 References
- Over 300 Tables and Figures

Victoria Hospice

Published by Victoria Hospice Society (2006)
Textbook Price incl. tax (Cdn) $65
Companion Booklet incl. tax (Cdn) $15.75
www.victoriahospice.org

*Textbook for the Victoria Hospice Palliative Care: Medical Intensive Course